

Sanibel Island Rental Cottages

Going to the cottage used to mean a trip north. But these days, many people are packing up to spend a week at the cottage # down south.

For a truly unforgettable getaway, consider Sanibel Island cottage rentals. These private retreats offer pure relaxation and a leisurely place. The serenity of spending your vacation at a Sanibel Island cottage is perfect for unwinding from your hectic life, refocusing on life's priorities, and reenergizing your mind and body.

Here is a little information on some of Sanibel Island's favorite cottage rentals:

Seashore Cottages on Sanibel

Many of us dream of visiting a cottage on the seashore, and this location is the perfect way to make that dream a reality. Surrounded by lush gardens, palms and tropical plants, these Sanibel Island rental cottages are designed with the adult traveler in mind. Each ground level, attached cottage boasts its own particular charm and beauty, adorned in unique island decor and appointed with stunning antique oak antiques. Visitors may choose from studio, one bedroom, deluxe one bedroom and two bedroom cottages. Every Seashore Cottage features ceramic tile floors, cable TV, individually controlled heat and central air conditioning, queen size beds and more comfortable and convenient amenities.

Periwinkle Cottages of Sanibel

Birders deem Periwinkle Cottages of Sanibel to be the perfect location. The Cottages are nestled amid the natural beauty of the exclusive west end of the island. Periwinkle Cottages is the preferred destination of nature lovers, as it is located right next to the Ding Darling Wildlife Sanctuary. The proximity to Sanibel Island's natural wonders is reflected in the names of the accommodations themselves. Visitors to Periwinkle may choose to stay in the Egret, Sandpiper, Ibis or Heron cottages.

While the name "Periwinkle Cottages" brings to mind a relatively intimate affair, and with good reason. The family-owned cottages are clean and quaint, yet fully appointed with all the amenities required for travelers including complimentary bicycles and a library filled with books, videos and board games to be borrowed and enjoyed. Built in 1959, Periwinkle Cottages retain the southern grace and charm of Old Florida. From your cottage you can walk or cycle the short 300-yard journey to the island's most pristine, private and white sand beaches, where fabulous Sanibel Island shelling awaits. For more information visit periwinklecottages.com.

Palms of Sanibel Cottages

In the heart of Old Town Sanibel you'll find The Palms of Sanibel, a family owned and operated accommodation center. The historic east end location is fun to explore on foot or bicycle, featuring the Sanibel Lighthouse and endless sandy beaches. Each of these Sanibel Island rental cottages has been completely remodeled and beautifully decorated with ceramic tile floors, queen size beds, cable TVs, telephone, private baths, modern kitchen, and many more amenities. There is a private pool, BBQ area and complimentary bicycles for visitors to use. The Palms of Sanibel Cottages are nestled in a serene tropical atmosphere among coconut palms, hibiscus and bougainvillea bushes, with pathways winding through the lush gardens. Pictures and details can be found at palmssofsanibel.com.

Gulf Breeze Cottages

Located on the Gulf of Mexico at the Sanibel Lighthouse end of the island, Gulf Breeze Cottages are just a short walk or bike ride from shops, restaurants, entertainment centers, golfing and tennis courses. From within your Gulf Breeze Cottage on Shell Basket Lane, you can literally be lulled to sleep as the ocean's waves gently lapping the shore. While traditional in style, the Sanibel Island rental cottages and efficiencies have been fully updated and equipped with modern amenities and furnishings. For more information and to book online visit gbreeze.com.

When you're ready to rent a cottage for your next vacation, think "south" and enjoy a tropical adventure in one of many beautiful Sanibel Island rental cottages.